

Nurse Joy

(443) 123-4567 | njoy@umaryland.edu | Baltimore, MD 21204

Professional Summary

New-grad RN with three years of direct patient care experience. Experienced in a variety of clinical settings; demonstrated skillset in Labor and Delivery, as well as fast-paced trauma nursing.

Licensure and Certifications

Eligible for NCLEX-RN test
Certified Nursing Assistant, MD Department of Health; License No: A000000

scheduled test date: June 14th, 2020
expires: January 17th 2021

Education

University of Maryland, Baltimore - School of Nursing (UMSON), Baltimore
Bachelor of Science, Nursing

May 2020
GPA: 3.5

- Honors: Dean's List (Fall 2018-Present), Conway Scholar

Clinical Rotations, 675 hours

Johns Hopkins Hospital, Labor + Delivery, NICU, Antepartum/Postpartum Units – 180 hrs (Leadership & Practicum, Spring 2020)
 Greater Baltimore Medical Center, Labor and Delivery – 90 hrs (Maternity, Newborn, & Women's Health; Fall 2019)
 Children's National Medical Center, Neuroscience Unit – 90 hrs (Pediatrics, Fall 2019)
 University of Maryland Medical Center, Progressive Care Unit – 180 hrs (Medical-Surgical Adult Health; Spring 2019)
 Sheppard Pratt, Adult Crisis Stabilization Unit – 90 hrs (Psychiatric Nursing, Spring 2019)
 Heritage Center, Long Term Care – 45 hrs (Fundamentals, Fall 2018)

Towson University, Towson, MD
Bachelor of Arts, Psychology

May 2018
GPA: 3.7

Professional Experience

Student Nurse, University of Maryland Medical Center, Baltimore, MD

May 2019 - present

- Assist RNs on 15-patient Intensive Care Unit to provide quality care
- Obtain and record patients' vital signs and inform nurse supervisor of changes in status
- Monitor patients and document their progress in progress notes using EPIC Training Electronic Health Record
- Assist patients with activities of daily living to include feeding, grooming, dressing, and toileting

Guided Study Session Leader, Student Success Center, UMSON, Baltimore, MD

January 2019 – May 2020

- Facilitated large and small group discussions on course content for three courses:
(1) Pathopharmacology (2) Medical-Surgical Nursing in Adult Population (3) Infant, Child, & Adolescent Nursing
- Collaborated with faculty and staff to plan and prepare session materials
- Taught participants proper study strategies (textbook reading, note-taking, test preparation, and test taking skills)

Mental Health Worker, Sheppard Pratt Health System, Baltimore, MD

July 2017 - December 2018

- Assisted RNs in providing direct care of the patients in accordance with the treatment plan
  - Obtained and recorded patients' vital signs. Observed patients for suicidal behavior to keep them safe
- Participated in the planning and evaluation of patient needs based on patient behaviors
- Documented patients' behavior, affect, and treatment progress in nursing progress notes using EHR

Volunteer Experience

Classroom Volunteer, Girl Scouts, Baltimore, MD

June 2018 - July 2018

Technical Skills

- EPIC Electronic Health Records
- Sunrise Electronic Health Records

Language Skills

- Conversational in Spanish and French